

Referral

Ontario Aboriginal Housing Services will provide supportive services to Indigenous individuals who are experiencing homelessness. The individual shall be referred to Ontario Aboriginal Housing Services' Indigenous Homeless Supportive Case Manager to conduct a thorough assessment. If individual is willing to participate in the Mkaana'aa wii-giwe'aad-"Finding their way Home" program, then assistance will be offered that will provide Indigenous individuals with culturally appropriate supportive housing services.

Indigenous individuals who are experiencing homelessness will be offered an Indigenous centred approach to supportive services to help transfer knowledge and skills as they move forward on the housing continuum.
