

The Don McBain Memorial Award

Ontario Aboriginal Housing Services (OAHS) is proud to announce the Don McBain Memorial Award. In honour of the late founder and Executive Director of OAHS, this award is given to an individual on their journey to post-secondary education.

Ontario Aboriginal Housing Services' mission and vision is to provide safe, sustainable, and affordable housing to urban and rural Indigenous people across the province of Ontario. In addition to providing housing services, OAHS supports the communities and people we serve in a variety of other honourable and charitable ways.

This award is comprised of two (2) $5,000 rewards that will be distributed annually to two (2) Indigenous students from Ontario pursuing their first year of post-secondary studies.

Don was the driving force behind the establishment of OAHS which was incorporated in 1994 and had a positive impact on the lives of everyone he encountered. Don worked tirelessly for decades carrying out OAHS's mission and vision. During his tenure, OAHS grew from a developing agent into a multi-faceted Corporation employing over 80 people while owning and administering a portfolio of over 2,300 safe and affordable housing units while designing and delivering both repair and homeownership program opportunities.

We want to continue honouring Don's legacy through the Don McBain Memorial Award and inspiring the future leaders of our province with this fund.

Award terms and conditions

Award amount

The amount of $5000 will be awarded to two Indigenous students exclusively for their first year of post-secondary studies. This award will not be renewed the following year for those recipients. A new pair of students will receive the award each year.

Eligible uses

Eligible uses for the award funds include: tuition, books, technology, housing, transportation, and all other living expenses during the first year of post-secondary education.

Eligibility criteria

You are eligible for the award if you meet all of the following criteria:

Application evaluation criteria

Your application will be reviewed by a committee that includes representatives of Indigenous non-profit housing providers in Ontario and members of the McBain family. When they review your application, they will be scoring you based on:

- Demonstrated financial need
- Effort put into answering the application essay/personal project (choose one)
- Two letters of recommendation

Essay - Please answer the following question in less than 1000 words in essay format:

"This award is founded on the memory of Don McBain who influenced change in his community and continues to inspire those he left behind. He was able to accomplish great things in his professional life by improving Indigenous housing in his community and beyond. If you had the authority to change your community in a positive way, what specific changes would you make?"

If submitting online, the essay must be a PDF document.

Personal Project: Get creative through video, music, art, and more and create something based on this question:

"This award is founded on the memory of Don McBain who influenced change in his community and continues to inspire those he left behind. He was able to accomplish great things in his professional life by improving Indigenous housing in his community and beyond. If you had the authority to change your community in a positive way, what specific changes would you make?"

All files must be less than 20MB in order to be submitted online. There will be a link on the application of where to upload your personal project file. Examples of personal projects can be a vlog, video essay, short film, a song, a painting, and more.

Letter of Recommendation: In order for us to get to know you better, we want to know how others see you. Please provide two letters written and signed by the following individuals:

1. A teacher from your secondary school

Ontario Aboriginal Housing Services

2. Another member of the community you are close with (boss, Elder, family member, coach, etc.)

These letters should be no longer than a page and describe your character and why you should receive this award. For those who are applying online, please submit a PDF file of the letter, and for those submitting through mail, please provide the letters in envelopes signed by their respective writers.
