8. OAHS Terms
Please initial each section below once you have read the provided information regarding OAHS Programs Terms:
OAHS will enter into an agreement with each successful Indigenous Household prior to advancing funds and will ensure that the terms of the agreement include a covenant by the Indigenous Household to repay all of the advanced funds to OAHS if the property is sold/transferred/rented by the Indigenous Household within twenty (20) years following the date of purchase.
This agreement will be registered as a Charge/Mortgage against the title to your property until such time as your commitment under the agreement has been fulfilled. This represents our mutual security in the case of default of the terms of the loan
If successful, funds will be advanced to the solicitor acting for the purchaser to be held in trust pending completion of the sale.
No funds will be advanced to any other party. The funds advanced are subject to the trust condition that the funds will be returned to OAHS if the transaction is not completed for any reason. If funds are returned to OAHS, and the applicant wants to re-apply for new funding, the applicant must re-submit their application and meet the eligibility requirements.
All applicants who give personal information to OAHS shall be required to consent to the release of that information to Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing (MMAH) in order to comply with the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA) and Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FIPPA). The information provided on this application will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility and potential successful selection for the OPHI Homeownership program.
